

THE CAPITOL.NET, INC.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact:

Chug Roberts

Publisher

TheCapitol.Net

Phone: (703) 739-3790

Fax: (703) 739-1195

Email: registrar -at- thecapitol.net

Web Site: www.NewCongress.com

The New Congress 2009: Understanding the 111th Congress Sponsored by TheCapitol.Net

ALEXANDRIA, VA – January 14, 2009 – The 111th Congress faces many challenges. Learn about this new Congress and its legislative priorities during TheCapitol.Net's course, The New Congress 2009: Understanding the 111th Congress on Tuesday, February 10, 2009 at the District of Columbia Bar Conference Center from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. in Washington, DC.

Independent subject matter experts will discuss the outcomes of the congressional races, electoral trends, and the leadership of the 111th Congress. They will look at the new class of 2009 and how its members will impact the institution.

The program will cover key issues from the 110th Congress that will be carried into the 111th Congress, and focus on domestic, security, and defense policy challenges.

The New Congress is for professionals who have to work with the new Congress on a regular basis.

The one day course includes a continental breakfast, a networking lunch, and copies of the Training Edition of the Congressional Deskbook by Michael Koempel and Judy Schneider and published by TheCapitol.Net, and the then-available Congressional Directory.

To learn more about The New Congress 2009 go to www.NewCongress.com or contact TheCapitol.Net directly at 703-739-3790 for more information. Space for this conference is limited.

ABOUT THE COMPANY:

TheCapitol.Net is a privately held, non-partisan publishing and training company based in Alexandria, VA. TheCapitol.Net offers non-partisan media, legislative, budget and advocacy training and information for thousands of government and business leaders each year, and is the exclusive provider of Congressional Quarterly Executive Conferences.

<http://www.businesswire.com/news/home/20090114006240/en>